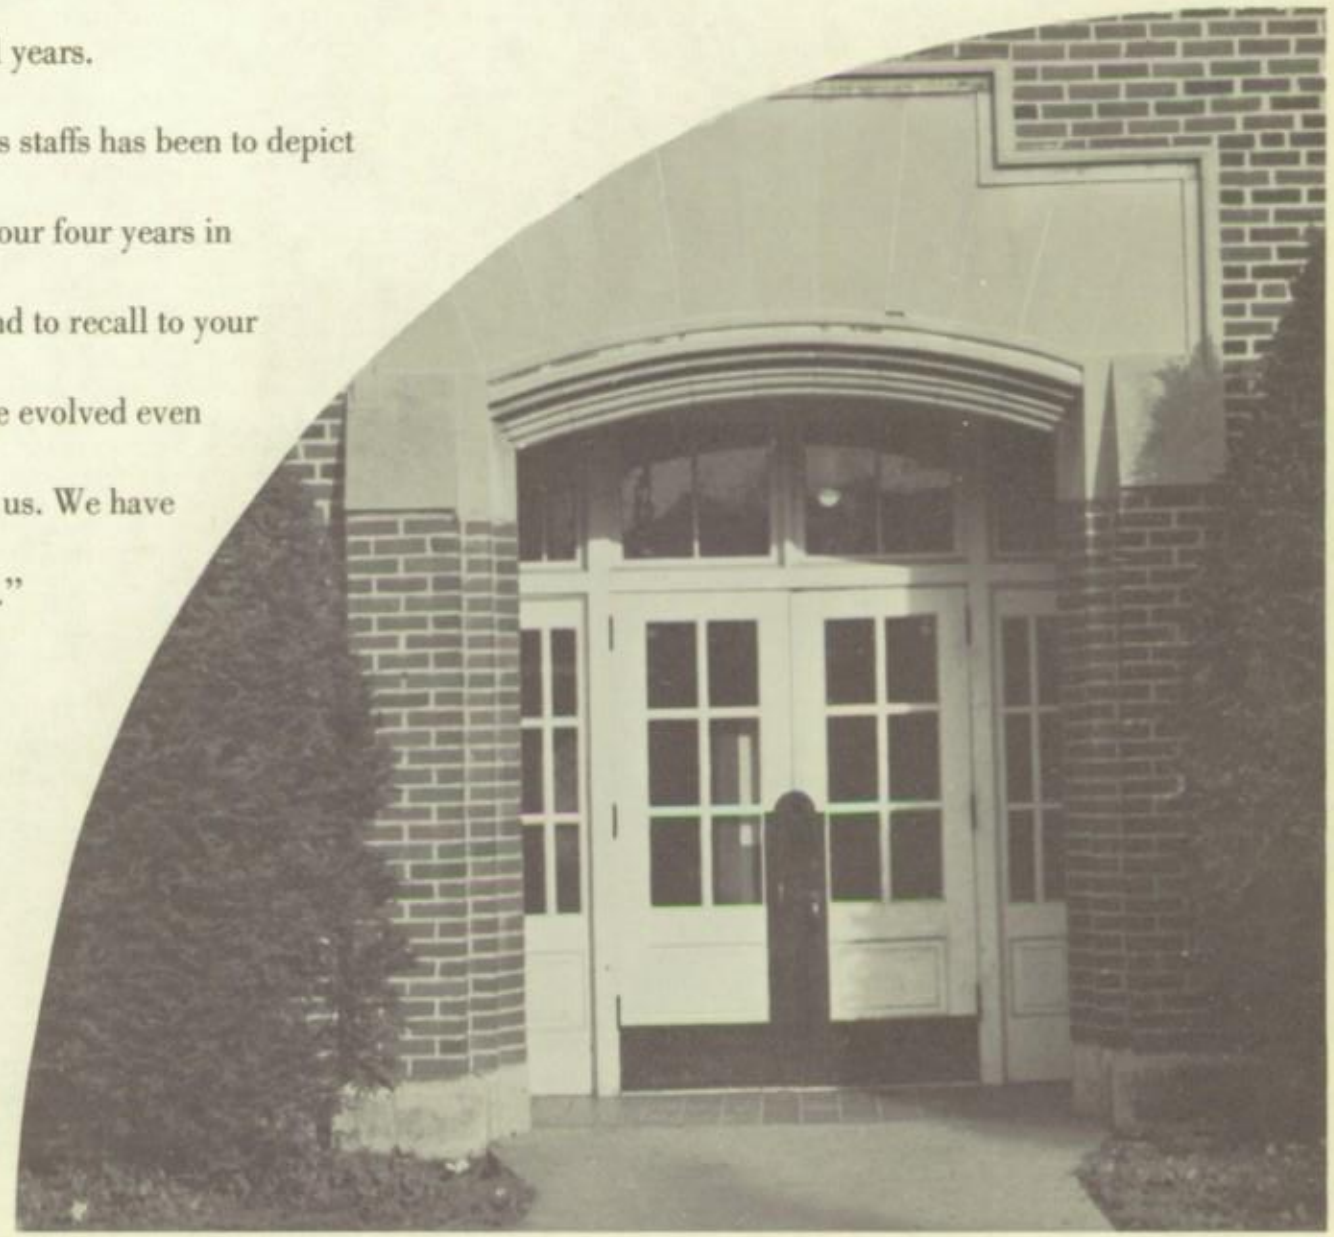
BEFORE YOU TURN THE PAGE . . .

As the years roll by, as the hairs grow thin and gray, may you turn again to these pages and relive the many pleasant memories of your high school years.

The aim of the 1956 Leoninus staffs has been to depict in pictures the highlights of your four years in New Holland High School, and to recall to your memory the changes that have evolved even during the lifetime of each of us. We have chosen the theme "Futurama."

You hold the product of the staffs in your hands, not only the book—but the verdict. We hope that you will find us "guilty" in the sense of "a job well done."



DEDICATION

To you, Mr. J. Kenneth Herr, this issue of Leoninus has been dedicated out of the heartfelt thanks of each member of the senior class for the many times we have turned to you in time of need for guidance in the many problems confronting us in our high school years.

Your readiness to help in time of need and your genial manner have brought you very near to those who have been under your guidance for the past years. Beyond the words of counsel and advice stands the splendid Christian character of a man who truly lives the creed he professes. This, Mr. Herr, we recognize above all else.

This dedication is our way of expressing a sincere thank you for your unselfish attention to our problems. We hope that in this way we may partially repay our debt to you.

APPRECIATION

As a token of their appreciation to all those people who have helped in any way to make their school life a fuller and more fruitful one, the class of 1956 has chosen to dedicate this space to a small, but sincere thank you message.

To our parents who stood by with understanding and wise counsel, to the each and every one person on the school staff, and many others who have made the way a little easier for us, this space is dedicated as a fragment of our gratitude. In the busy schedule of our school days we may have overlooked many of the kind jestures extended to us, but behind these words, in the minds of each one of us is embedded a deep gratitude which will grow ever more meaningful as we face the life of tomorrow.

And so, to you, whatever capacity you may have influenced us, we pause to extend this grateful note of thanks for helping us along our way of preparation to face a new and different world tomorrow.

ADMINISTRATION

BOARD OF EDUCATION

We, the Senior Class of 1956, wish to express our deepest appreciation to you, the Board of Education, for your kind co-operation and helpfulness during our high school career.

Your earnest and helpful planning has given us an incentive to become better citizens in the world which we are about to enter.

As citizens of tomorrow, we understand the countless problems and difficulties you have encountered in paving the way for consolidation.

PLAY

KING ARTHUR'S COURT

ARTHUR'S COURT MODERNIZED

In this dramatization, the Yankee from Connecticut is a young engineer just out of college, and anxious to try his hand at every kind of mechanical device. He is knocked out cold by one of his experiments and wakes up to find himself in the Court of King Arthur. From then on, the striking contrasts between the old and the new develop into a series of ludicrous events. Television, radio, aviation, football, and even the corner drugstore find their way into the kingdom of Arthur through the influence of the enterprising young engineer . . . . . who eventually finds himself in hot water. But all's well that ends well . . . . . and the CONNECTICUT YANKEE is no exception.

NIGHT OF JANUARY 16

GUILTY OR NOT GUILTY

In this unique dramatization, the scene is the court room of the Superior Court of the state of New York.

Bjorn Faulkner, wealth financier and iron hand of the business world, was hurled from his luxurious penthouse to the ground far below. Police investigation reveals murder and entails difficulty as to the true hand behind this horrible plot.

Two women ruled his life—and his death. Karen Andre, his secretary, who was on trial for his murder, and Nancy Lee Faulkner, his new bride. Both these women were accused of this murder.

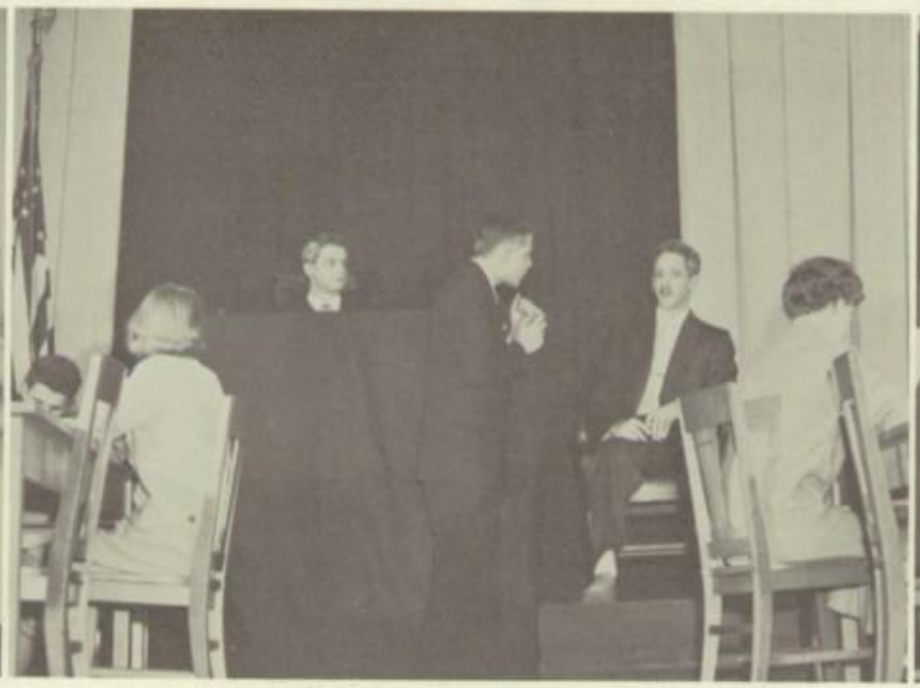
Witnesses, called upon the stand to testify, added to the brilliance and excitement of the performance.

Jurors were selected and called from the audience. The fate of the defendant, Karen Andre, rested in their hands.

A sigh of relief was rendered by the audience as the jury announced their decision "not guilty."

The question still remains: Was Karen Andre really "guilty or not guilty."

"One of us is lying—and we both know which one."



"Faulkner leaning against the parapet. She pushes him . . ."

"Won! Gentlemen of the jury, I thank you."

SPOTLIGHTING THE SENIORS

Action! As the curtain rises the spotlight shines on us, the class of 1956. As we peer at the stage we are reminded of the many happy and constructive years we have spent in New Holland High School.

Act I now opens and we, junior high students, are entering high school. During those formative years we encountered many obstacles and new experiences which were a part of our adjustments from elementary school to the varied life of Junior High School. Gala parties, doggie roasts, scavenger hunts and producing a Minstrel Show comprised our extra curricular activities and provided fun and frolic.

Act II pictures us as Sophomores. Traveling to Hershey to see the Harlem Globe Trotters was our major activity.

As the drama of our school years unfolds we are reminded of how elated we were when we received our class jackets and rings. Happy memories also accompany the production of our Junior play, "The Night of January 16th."

Act III portrays us as Seniors for we have at last reached the closing scenes of our class drama. We have been very fortunate in being the first Senior Class to have been granted two senior class trips, namely to Washington in October and to New York in March. Action, thrills and excitement were expressed in our unusual class play, "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court."

As the climax approaches we hear strains of Baccalaureate hymns followed by the traditional Pomp and Circumstance of Commencement. Diplomas have been issued. As the curtain closes we hear the phrase from our Alma Mater, "as sons and daughters going forth, add glory to thy name."

HISTORY AND AIMS

Our student government was introduced into New Holland High School for the first time in the fall of 1947. After considerable time and effort, the council drew up the first constitution for the Student Council. One of the very first projects of that Student Council was an effort to start a Lancaster County Student Council Organization. They were very successful in this project, and the first County Student Council Convention was held in New Holland High School.

Although only nine years old, our present council is very well established. Our constitution was revised last year and by-laws added, but our aim and objectives remained the same. The aim of our council is to bring the students and faculty into a closer relationship, to create a better school spirit, to coordinate the activities of the school, and to promote the general welfare of the student body.

Student Council sets up a median between the student body and the faculty, and through this it tries to create a harmonious relationship and also a high standard of school spirit.

We have been well represented at our county, district, and state conventions, and also at the previous national convention.

Quill and Scroll

International Honorary Society for High School Journalists

Advisor - Miss Ruth A. Witman

Quill and Scroll is an international honorary society for high school journalists. It was organized in 1926 for the purpose of encouraging and rewarding individual achievement in journalism and allied fields. There are now over thirty-five hundred chapters, totaling eighty-thousand members in all.

Many tasks are undertaken by the society. From its beginning, Quill and Scroll has sponsored contests in different fields of creative work. Other duties include the organization of state press associations, criticism of manuscripts and publications, establishment of better relations between school and community by means of conditions for supervisors and teachers of journalism, and the acquainting of school officials and the public with the value of high school journalism.

High Schools which publish a newspaper, an annual, or a magazine, considered of sufficient merit by the executive council, are eligible for a charter of Quill and Scroll. According to the constitution, members of the society must be selected from high school students who meet the following requirements:

(1) They must be of at least junior standing.
(2) They must be in the upper third of their class in general scholastic standing, at the time of their election.
(3) They must have done superior work in some phase of journalistic or creative endeavor.
(4) They must be recommended by the supervisor or by the committee governing publications.
(5) They must be approved by the Executive Secretary.

New Holland High School was granted a charter of Quill and Scroll on December 9, 1938. This society is in charge of writing articles concerning school events for the local papers. There is a special Quill and Scroll column which appears in the town paper. The group also posts a monthly bulletin in the school corridor.

History and work of Quill and Scroll gleaned from 1955 October and November issue of Quill and Scroll magazine.

SELECT CHORUS

Under the direction of Mr. Paul H. White, director, a select chorus was chosen to take the place of the Senior Chorus early in the year. During the year the chorus has rounded out a full schedule of singing engagements.

Among the highlights of the year was the annual Christmas Program at which time the chorus rendered a Waring arrangement of "A Song of Christmas" and the "Hallelujah Chorus." Soloists for this event were: Paul Umberger, Bass; Helen Sauder, Soprano; Mike Witmer, Tenor; Jean Ann Buckwalter, Soprano; and Anne Marie High, Alto. For the first time the program was held on two nights due to the increased attendance in previous years.

Soon after the holidays the chorus began work on the program for the Spring Concert. The feature of the program was a minstrel show entitled "The land of Cotton." This was another "first" for the chorus in that it was the first time that the chorus and band presentations were held on separate nights.

ALL-STARS

The Huskies started out the season with a bang under the careful eye of their new coach, Mr. Leon Richwine. With many of the veterans returning from previous years the Huskies won battle after battle to find them near the top with the end of the season just over the hill. As the tenseness grew the Huskies maintained their spirit of sportsmanship and continued to play as good a game as ever. The final climax of the season was the victory which gave them the Section I flag and declared them

HARDWORK AND PRACTICE PAY OFF

Coach Herr's Huskies took off with a good start downing five straight undefeated tilts in the early League action. Their contest with Pequea Valley drew a record crowd of six hundred to see the New Holland Squad drop the undefeated Pequea Valley five in one of their most exciting games of the season.

The crowds witnessed many a thrill as the boys played game after game without substitution. Here, as in other sports most of the "veterans" will be graduating. These boys along with their fellow players and coach may well look back upon the season with pride. Congratulations to the team and their coach on an excellent season of sportsmanship and playing Skill.

SPEAK FOR YOURSELF

Millions upon millions of times a year the words "New Holland" are printed in 45 countries around the world. All of this is part of New Holland's advertising and public relations program designed to sell farm machinery.

The words are seen in advertisements, booklets, catalogs, folders, letters —and heard on radio, heard and seen on television and in motion picture theaters. And all because a product can't really "speak for itself". In a sense, of course, a good product satisfies the owner and he tells his friends. But by and large it's advertising, public relations, sales promotion that speak for the product.

Most folks today have no personal advertising and public relations program—at least none that costs a sizable sum of money. But you can speak for yourself in many ways—thanks to the education and training received in your schools. Education today is a "must" for anybody who needs to "sell" himself. And whether you're going directly into business—starting a home—or going on to further education, there's always a need for selling yourself to your friends, co-workers, and families.

Our congratulations to the Class of 1956—and our thanks to the teachers who helped make your graduation possible.
